GUIDELINES FOR IMPORTING DOGS

1. The Barbados Kennel Club will normally only accept for registration dogs from overseas countries where The Barbados Kennel Club has reciprocal agreements with the overseas Kennel Club or from countries which have full membership or contract partnership of the F. C. I.
2. Application for the registration of a dog imported from other countries may be considered by the Committee, provided that the application is made BEFORE the dog is imported.
3. Imported dogs will normally only be accepted for those breeds recognized by The Barbados Kennel Club, but applications for importing other established foreign breeds will be considered, providing that an application is made BEFORE the dog is imported.
4. All imported dogs will have the overseas registration number added to their Kennel Club registered name.
5. The name of the dog imported from, and already registered in another country, cannot be changed except by the addition of an owner's affix, which can be incorporated at registration, accompanied by payment of the appropriate fee. It is permitted to use any one of the following words:- of, at, with, to, among, by, from, in, through, via, between, von, vom, del, for, under, over, cum, mit, avec.
6. Bitches imported in whelp must first be registered with The Barbados Kennel Club. The litter may then be registered, accompanied by a certified three generation pedigree issued by the country of origin for the sire.
7. To obtain further information regarding The Barbados Kennel Club procedure for importing dogs from abroad please telephone the Registrar at 417-0607.
